there are two ladies in the province i am told who read writes frances brooke s arabella fermor but both are above fifty and are regarded as prodigies of erudition brooke s the history of emily montague 1769 was the first work of fiction to be set in canada and also the first book to reflect on the situation of the woman writer there her analysis of the experience of writing in canada is continued by the five other writers considered in this study susanna moodie sara jeannette duncan l m montgomery margaret atwood and carol shields all of these authors examine the social position of the woman of letters in canada the intellectual stimulation available to her the literary possibilities of canadian subject matter and the practical aspects of reading writing and publishing in a post colonial country this book turns on the ways in which those aspects of authorship and literary culture in canada have been inscribed in imaginative autobiographical and critical texts by the six authors it traces the evolving situation of the canadian woman writer over the course of two centuries and explores the impact of social and cultural change on the experience of writing in canada

this volume brings together essays which suggest that the relationship between canada and europe is a two way process as historically the traffic between them has been either may have something to offer the other europe too acknowledges situations today in which difference and community are hard terms to reconcile difference refers to gender sexuality race nationality or language community is the collective understanding which must continually be renegotiated and reconstructed among these factors the canadian european connection is one in which it seems especially appropriate to explore such circumstances the topics covered include pioneer women s writing transcultural women s fiction canonical taxonomy of the contemporary novel the city poem in confederate canada poetry of the great war various ethno cultural perspectives jewish south asian italian native reappropriations quebec cinema literature and the media and small press publishing some of the authors treated sandra birdsell nicole brossard jack hodgins henry kreisel robert kroetsch janice kulyk keefer archibald lampman malcolm lowry lesley lum daphne marlatt susanna moodie bharati mukherjee alice munro frank paci and susan swan is it possible to capture something as ephemeral as love with mere words méira cook draws on lacan derrida barthes and kristeva to wrestle with the theoretical problems of representing the unrepresentable in writing lovers she searches for a language adequate to articulating the discourse of passion desire and longing in the love poetry of dionne brand elizabeth smart daphne marlatt dorothy livesay kristjana gunnars and nicole markotic in writings by the french post structuralists rhetorical tropes such as speechlessness fragmentation and deflection testify to the writer s difficulty in broaching the subject of love similarly cook shows that love poetry proceeds out of a profound failure of language resulting from the opacity of discourse its lack of neutrality or the fugitive transparency of reference writing lovers also explores race ethnicity age and sexual identity within the context of the passionate excesses of amatory discourse the writings collected here all testify to the complexity of gunnars s literary vision as much as they testify to the sheer pleasures of reading her work in her interview gunnars speaks both as a reader and a writer describing the form and modes of address of her work as well as the philosophical and literary traditions she draws from the nine essays and two poems that follow organized chronologically according to the publication dates of the primary texts they treat represent a broad range of approaches to kristjana gunnars s work the contributors are m travis lane judith owens janice kulyk keefer deidre lynch stephen scobie anne malena siobhan o flynn k i press and christl verduyn it is my hope that readers will find in this critical community some productive points of entry into gunnars s corpus that will stimulate their own thinking about her words and ideas from the introduction by monique tschofen
